The Centre for International Relations offers full service for foreign guests. It provides advice and guidance to incoming students and staff members and handles any discrepancies or unexpected situations. For foreign students, it organizes various academic, social and cultural events and activities to help them settle in a new environment and meet new cultures and traditions.

Housing for international students

Students can be accommodated in the dormitory provided by KSPU. Alternatively, they can stay at various hotels in Kostanay or rent a flat near KSPU.

Student life

Living and studying in a foreign country is a challenge. Meeting new people, gaining new experience, learning new languages, discovering new places. Having hard times or being homesick is also part of the experience. However, traditional Kazakh hospitality will not allow anyone to feel a stranger. With good friends and empathic teachers of KSPU, incoming students will overcome any difficulty and will fully enjoy their stay.

KSPU offers various possibilities for sport activities, such as being a member of KSPU basketball and football clubs, etc.; social gatherings; artistic and cultural events; music performance; literature readings; debate clubs and so on.

Students may also join KSPU language clubs:

- Course of the French language in the French cultural center
- Club for speaking in the German Language
